VISITORS
We welcome you to worship with us today! Whether you are an Orthodox Christian, or this is your first visit to an Orthodox Church, we are pleased to have you with us. Members of our Welcoming Committee may be found in the entry area of the Church (outer Narthex) near the candle stand to assist you in signing up for our mailing list and provide you with information about our Church.

Holy Communion in the Orthodox Christian Church is reserved for baptized/confirmed Orthodox Christians who, additionally, have prepared to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through fasting from meat on Wednesday and Friday, have not eaten anything this morning, except for medications, and have asked forgiveness from others as appropriate. We receive frequently, but not casually.

Orthodox Christians who are not prepared to receive the Holy Eucharist, non-Orthodox Christians, and non-Christians are welcome to come forward at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy to receive the Antidoron, which is blessed bread, and to join us in fellowship.

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church
Sunday Services: Orthros 8:15am, Divine Liturgy 9:30am
Entrance Hymn
Come let us bow down to Christ,
As we worship Him, The Son of God.
Save us, O Son of God,
Who did rise from the dead,
We sing to You: Alleluia

Apolytikion of the Feast
In essence being God, most-compassionate Master,
You assumed human nature without transmutation.
Fulfilling the Law, of Your own will
You accepted circumcision in the flesh,
To bring an end to the shadow,
And to remove the passions that cover us.
Glory to Your benevolence, O Lord;
Glory to Your compassion;
Glory to Your inexpressible condescension, O Word.

Resurrectional Apolytikion
Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad,
For the Lord has shown the mighty power of His arm.
He has trampled down death by death,
Becoming the first born of the dead.
He has delivered us from the depths of hell
And has granted to all the world His great mercy.

Apolytikion for St. Basil
Your proclamation went forth into all the earth,
For it accepted your word,
Through which you taught the dogmas befitting God,
You expounded on the nature of all that is,
And you arranged the morals of society.
A royal priesthood!
Devout father Basil, intercede with Christ our God,
To grant us His great mercy.

Kontakion
As the Master over all has undergone circumcision,
So He cuts away the sins of humankind in His goodness.
On this day, upon the world He bestows salvation.
And on high does the Creator's hierarch Basil now rejoice,
For he is known as a most divine and light-bearing mystic of Christ.

After the Prayer of the Proskomidi
I love you, O Lord my strength.
The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my Savior.
EPISTLE READING: St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians 2:8-12
BRETHREN, see to it that no one makes a prey of you by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fulness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fulness of life in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of flesh in the circumcision of Christ; and you were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

At that time, the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them. And at the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb. And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him. Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the Passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up according to custom; and when the feast was ended, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it, but supposing him to be in the company they went a day's journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances; and when they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking him. After three days, they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions; and all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. And when they saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been looking for you anxiously." And he said to them, "How is it that you sought me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" And they did not understand the saying which he spoke to them. And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and man.

Iconography Phase 3
Those interested in donating an icon for Phase 3 are encouraged to review the updated list of available icons. The process is the same as Phase 2 -- "first come, first served". Please include the Code Number on the memo line of the check. If another means of donating the funds is used, the Code Number should be either written on paper or sent in an email to avoid any confusion. New IRA Law
For those who are 70 ½ years old and older, consider this new charitable contribution transfer directly from your IRA to Holy Trinity Church -- with NO tax and NO penalty. Maximum annual amount per year can total $100,000. This is a win-win for donor and Holy Trinity Church!

Philoptochos Coat Campaign

Please bring new or gently used coats for men and women along with scarves, gloves, and toiletries such as deodorant, lotion, soap, toothpaste and toothbrushes and place them in the bin in the Founders' Walk. For more information please contact Philoptochos at Philoptochos@holytrinityindy.org
Parish Office Request

To assist our Parish Office Staff in keeping accurate records, please include the purpose of each donation in any form. For example, when donating by check, please include the words “Stewardship 2017” or "sound system" on the memo line; if giving via Paypal, include the giver’s full name and address, and in the Notes section, enter the purpose; OR when sending cash, please write the giver's name and the purpose on a note or envelope. The Office Staff greatly appreciates the cooperation of our parishioners, enabling the donation to be properly recorded in the appropriate account.

Holy Communion

Holy Communion is the Body and Blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Saint John of Kronstadt (1829 – 1908) says, “in partaking of the Holy Sacrament, be as sure that you partake of the Body and Blood of Christ, as you are sure that every moment you breathe the air.”

Saint Cyril of Jerusalem (about 313 – 386) also teaches us “Since Christ Himself has declared the bread to be His Body, who can have any further doubt? Since He Himself has said quite categorically, ‘This is My Blood,’ who would dare to question it, and say that it is not His Blood? Therefore, it is with complete assurance that we receive the bread and wine as the Body and Blood of Christ. His Body is given to us under the symbol of bread, and His Blood is given to us under the symbol of wine, in order to make us by receiving them one body and blood with Him. Having His Body and Blood in our members, we become bearers of Christ and sharers, as Saint Peter says, of the divine nature... Do not then regard the Eucharistic elements as ordinary bread and wine: they are in fact the Body and Blood of the Lord, as He Himself has declared. Whatever your senses tell you, be strong in faith.”

The Lord urges us to make a sincere effort to make peace with each other when anger or hurt exists, seeking forgiveness or granting forgiveness, as appropriate, (Matthew 5:24) before approaching the Lord.

Receiving Holy Communion is certainly important to our spiritual life and growth. This ultimate connection with Jesus Christ is a gift which God gives to us and one which should be accepted gratefully and responsibly. Our Church teaches that receiving Holy Communion frequently is encouraged. Our Church also teaches that a preparation is expected.

Preparation for Holy Communion can vary from person to person. The minimum preparation to receive Holy Communion is to fast from meat on Wednesday and Friday and not eat anything on the morning prior to receiving Holy Communion. For those who must take medication that requires food, they are permitted to eat that which is necessary for their health.

Furthermore, the Church teaches us to fast on particular days during the year and especially during the four main fast periods. These four main fast periods are in preparation of holy days of the year, as follows:

- December 13 - 24 (Nativity of our Lord)
- Great Lent (before Holy Week and Easter)
- Monday after All Saints’ Day through June 28 (the Apostles)
- August 1 - 14 (the Dormition of the Theotokos)

Each of us is encouraged to approach the Chalice to receive Holy Communion in love and in peace, gratefully and responsibly.
