Holy Communion in the Orthodox Christian Church is reserved for baptized/confirmed Orthodox Christians who, additionally, have prepared to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through fasting from meat on Wednesday and Friday, have not eaten anything this morning, except for medications, and have asked forgiveness from others as appropriate. We receive frequently, but not casually.

Orthodox Christians who are not prepared to receive the Holy Eucharist, non-Orthodox Christians, and non-Christians are welcome to come forward at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy to receive the Antidoron, which is blessed bread, and to join us in fellowship.

RESURRECTION GOSPEL READING: St. Mark 16:1-8

When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, so that they might come and anoint Him. Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. They were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" Looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, although it was extremely large. Entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting at the right, wearing a white robe; and they were amazed. And he said to them, "Do not be amazed; you are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen; He is not here; behold, here is the place where they laid Him. "But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see Him, just as He told you.'" They went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had gripped them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Festal Apolytikion for Pascha

Hristos anesti ek nekron,
Thanato thanato patisas,
ke tis en tis mnimasi,
Zoin harisamenos.

Entrance Hymn

In congregations, bless God the Lord from the wellsprings of Israel.
Save us O Son of God, Who did rise from the dead;
We sing to You: Alleluia

Festal Apolytikion for Pascha

Christ is risen from the dead,
By death, trampling down upon death,
And to those in the tombs
He has granted life.

Pascha Kontakion

Into the grave You descended Immortal One,
And yet the power of Hades have You destroyed!
And as Victor You did arise, O Christ Our God,
To the women who came bearing myrrh, You proclaimed,
"Rejoice!" and You granted Your Apostles the gift of peace,
And have bestowed, on the fallen, resurrection.

EPISTLE READING: Acts of the Apostles 1:1-8

GOSPEL READING: The Gospel According to St. John 1:1-17

Readings may be found on pages 45 & 46 of the RED Liturgy Book.

Meghalinarion for Pascha (The Angel Cried)

The angel cried to the Lady full of grace,
Rejoice, rejoice O pure Virgin!
Again I say rejoice!
Your Son is risen from His three days in the tomb.
With Himself He has raised all the dead,
Rejoice, rejoice, O ye people.

Shine! Shine! Shine O new Jerusalem.
The glory of the Lord has shone on you.
Exult now, exult and be glad, O Zion.
Be radiant, O pure Theotokos,
In the Resurrection, the Resurrection of Your Son.

Blessing of the Meat & Cheese

The blessing of the meat and cheese during the Resurrection Service is a tradition by some Orthodox. For those who will bring these to place on the table near the Solea, please approach a Parish Council member for assistance. The blessing prayer is offered at the end of the Divine Liturgy.
